

Daily Democrat.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY HARNEY, HUGHES & CO.

Office—79 Third Street, east side, between Market and Jefferson.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 1, 1862.

Closing and Arrival of the Mails at the Louisville Postoffice.

Eastern, Western and Northern close at 12:30 p.m., and arrive at 12:45 p.m.; via L. & N. R.R. (small offices close at 9:30 p.m. the previous evening), close at 6:30 a.m. and arrive at 12:45 p.m.; via C. & O. R.R. (small office close at 12:45 p.m.), close at 12:45 p.m.; via Mailboat to Cincinnati, Ohio, close at 9:00 A.M., and arrives at 11:30 A.M.; via 12:45 p.m. and arrives at 12:45 p.m.; via Louisville close at 12:45 p.m. and arrives at 12:45 p.m.; via Lebanon, Ky., close at 12:45 p.m. and arrives at 12:45 p.m.; via Bardstown, Ky., close at 12:45 p.m. and arrives at 12:45 p.m.; via Shawneetown Stage (1½ weeks) close at 12:45 p.m. and arrives at 12:45 p.m.; via Taylorsville Stage (1½ weeks) leaves Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 12:45 p.m. and arrives at 12:45 p.m.; via Taylorsville Stage close at 12:45 p.m. and arrives at 12:45 p.m. in route where the principal mails close at 12:45 p.m., the way mails close at 9:00 p.m.

CITY NEWS.

FOR SALE—Several fronts of wooden type and a variety of cutters necessary in a well-appointed job office. Also a No. 1. Ruggard cutter, nearly new and in good order. Apply at this office.

Mr. C. S. SHIRER is our agent at Versailles, Ky. Persons desiring to subscribe will please call on him.

Military Directory.

Brigadier General John W. Stevenson, United States forces in Kentucky, office south side of Washington between Fourth and Fifth streets.

Major Granger, commanding post office on center street, between Jefferson and Green.

Quartermaster's Office—Tiffin, Green street, two doors above Third.

Capt. Simonds, Commonwealth Sergeant—office on Second Street, below and back of House.

J. F. Head, Assistant Medical Director—office on Green street, Quartermaster's building.

Lieutenant Edmon, Ordnance Officer—Seventh and Main streets.

Lieutenant Easton, Ordnance Officer—Seventh and Main streets.

Lieutenant Hill, military storekeeper—Main street, between First and Brook.

Paymaster's Office—corner of Third and Walnut streets.

United States Depository—over the Postoffice.

The General Hospitals.

Hospital No. 1—Corner of Eighth and Green streets.

Hospital No. 3—Main street, between Seventh and Eighth.

Hospital No. 4—Corner of Fifteenth and Main streets.

Hospital No. 5—Corner of Center and Second streets.

Hospital No. 6—Small-pox—Bardstown road, near Gate Hill Cemetery.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS—Thursday, July 31. Commonwealth by Conrad Keisler vs Christ Zibble and others, peace warrant, own bond in $100 for six months.

Commonwealth by E. Tibbits vs Patrick Roberts, peace warrant; dismissed.

Pat Parrill, charged with stabbing L. Connally in a sudden heat of passion; $200 to answer.

John Burke, charged with stabbing John McArnold with intent to kill; continued until-to-morrow morning.

William White and John Cavanaugh, charged with stabbing Stephen Ray with intent to kill; continued until Saturday.

John Lehay, Johanna and Dennis McSweeney, charged with stealing $20 from R. Wick; discharged.

In the School Board, Mr. Ramsey offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Board of Trustees, at the ensuing election, shall elect local teachers only for the public schools, and that every teacher, after the election, found to be a disloyal person, or who has given any support to the so-called Confederate Government, will be dismissed from the school.

If any one should know of a teacher who is disloyal, that is necessary to his or her dismissal is to make the fact known to the Board.

The theater had a very fair audience last night. The entertainment was very attractive and pleasing. To-night one of the finest hills of the season is offered—the celebrated play of "Retribution" in four parts, an overture by the orchestra, concluding with the favorite farce of "Daisy Baker." There can be nothing more choice than the entertainment offered this evening, and we expect to see a large and fashionable audience present.

RELEASED.—The following persons were released from the military prison yesterday: C. C. Gaff, unconditional; W. Showers, parole of honor; Nat Carpenter, oath and bond $2,000; E. H. Baker, oath and bond $2,000; P. S. Brady, oath and bond $2,000; J. F. Gaines, oath and bond $2,000; Thos. Smith, oath; Thos. G. Bosley, oath and bond $1,000; Sam. Smith, oath and bond $2,000; Frank Williams, oath and bond $3,000; A. O. Bohannon, oath and bond $3,000.

The following persons were put in the military prison yesterday: A. H. Calvert, James Gridley, M. C. Hughes, M. P. Johnson, D. C. Kemper, Wm. Carlysle, R. F. Bell, John R. Hunting, S. H. Kyle, J. M. Vanninc, John Egland, Julius Bradas, C. H. Meyers, Andrew Lonnie, Julie Carpenter, and A. B. Witt.

Captain Delano requests us to call a meeting at 8 o'clock, to-night, at his plain-mill on Preston street, to complete the organization of the Home Guard company under his supervision. Let all who wish to join a good company attend.

We noticed Wednesday several new and beautiful passenger cars, of Eastern manufacture, for the Louisville & Nashville railroad, at the depot. A large passenger train went out yesterday morning, in charge of Capt. Will Taylor.

Mr. B. C. Rhodes, of Marion county, was released from the military prison on the 19th instant by taking the oath and giving bonds to the amount of $2,000, and not $2,000, as we stated in our paper.

John Cain, sr., requests us to return his thanks to the many friends who have been active in his support, and to state that he has withdrawn from the cause for the office of Coroner of Jefferson county.

RECONSTRUCTION.—In our notices of those released from the military prison yesterday morning, Geo. A. Edwards did not take the oath, and we stated, but gave $10,000 bonds, claiming British protection.

Ninety-seven rebel prisoners, who were captured in the fight at Mt. Sterling, arrived in Lexington yesterday.

Thanks to the Adams Express Company for latest Eastern papers.

Correspondence Louisville Democrat.

Further from the Furnit.

Mr. STERLING, Ky., July 30, 1862.

Editors—Democrat—Gentlemen: After their repulse from this place, the rebels 225 in number, were greatly disorganized and fled in every direction, and were pursued by some of our citizens, Major Brocht's men and the Home Guards of Clarkes and Powell, and as we are now informed, more than 150 have been killed, wounded or captured, and the balance scattered through the country, and are taken at the last account, the gang was reduced to fourteen in number, and they hotly pursued by seventy-five men, who will doubtless capture them. We are satisfied that not one of 225 will escape. There is a hand of sixty-one marauders on Red river, in Powell county, near its forks, whom it is difficult to capture, owing to the nature of the country, which greatly favors them, but the Home Guards are on the alert.

Correspondence Louisville Democrat.

The Mt. Sterling Fight.

WICHITA, July 30, 1862.

Editors—Democrat—Gentlemen: There was a smart little brush at Mt. Sterling, on yesterday, between the citizens and some 150 rebels, gathered from Boone and the counties along the way, seeking to join Morgan or Marshall. The rebels were repulsed and surrounded by a pursuing force of Warner's regiment and gathered citizens in their rear. There were two killed and seven wounded of the rebels, and 45 prisoners; and in our little town we were out all night and have captured seven more of them at this time, and a dozen more. The fight at Mt. Sterling scattered them everywhere, and our people are still in alarm. We will give them a hand of time.

Yours, T.

Correspondence Louisville Democrat.

WICHITA, July 30, 1862.

Editors—Democrat—Gentlemen: There was a small little brush at Mt. Sterling, on yesterday, between the citizens and some 150 rebels, gathered from Boone and the counties along the way, seeking to join Morgan or Marshall. The rebels were repulsed and surrounded by a pursuing force of Warner's regiment and gathered citizens in their rear. There were two killed and seven wounded of the rebels, and 45 prisoners; and in our little town we were out all night and have captured seven more of them at this time, and a dozen more. The fight at Mt. Sterling scattered them everywhere, and our people are still in alarm. We will give them a hand of time.

Yours, T.

Correspondence Louisville Democrat.

WICHITA, July 30, 1862.

Editors—Democrat—Gentlemen: There was a small little brush at Mt. Sterling, on yesterday, between the citizens and some 150 rebels, gathered from Boone and the counties along the way, seeking to join Morgan or Marshall. The rebels were repulsed and surrounded by a pursuing force of Warner's regiment and gathered citizens in their rear. There were two killed and seven wounded of the rebels, and 45 prisoners; and in our little town we were out all night and have captured seven more of them at this time, and a dozen more. The fight at Mt. Sterling scattered them everywhere, and our people are still in alarm. We will give them a hand of time.

Yours, T.

Correspondence Louisville Democrat.

WICHITA, July 30, 1862.

Editors—Democrat—Gentlemen: There was a small little brush at Mt. Sterling, on yesterday, between the citizens and some 150 rebels, gathered from Boone and the counties along the way, seeking to join Morgan or Marshall. The rebels were repulsed and surrounded by a pursuing force of Warner's regiment and gathered citizens in their rear. There were two killed and seven wounded of the rebels, and 45 prisoners; and in our little town we were out all night and have captured seven more of them at this time, and a dozen more. The fight at Mt. Sterling scattered them everywhere, and our people are still in alarm. We will give them a hand of time.

Yours, T.

Correspondence Louisville Democrat.

WICHITA, July 30, 1862.

Editors—Democrat—Gentlemen: There was a small little brush at Mt. Sterling, on yesterday, between the citizens and some 150 rebels, gathered from Boone and the counties along the way, seeking to join Morgan or Marshall. The rebels were repulsed and surrounded by a pursuing force of Warner's regiment and gathered citizens in their rear. There were two killed and seven wounded of the rebels, and 45 prisoners; and in our little town we were out all night and have captured seven more of them at this time, and a dozen more. The fight at Mt. Sterling scattered them everywhere, and our people are still in alarm. We will give them a hand of time.

Yours, T.

Correspondence Louisville Democrat.

WICHITA, July 30, 1862.

Editors—Democrat—Gentlemen: There was a small little brush at Mt. Sterling, on yesterday, between the citizens and some 150 rebels, gathered from Boone and the counties along the way, seeking to join Morgan or Marshall. The rebels were repulsed and surrounded by a pursuing force of Warner's regiment and gathered citizens in their rear. There were two killed and seven wounded of the rebels, and 45 prisoners; and in our little town we were out all night and have captured seven more of them at this time, and a dozen more. The fight at Mt. Sterling scattered them everywhere, and our people are still in alarm. We will give them a hand of time.

Yours, T.

Correspondence Louisville Democrat.

WICHITA, July 30, 1862.

Editors—Democrat—Gentlemen: There was a small little brush at Mt. Sterling, on yesterday, between the citizens and some 150 rebels, gathered from Boone and the counties along the way, seeking to join Morgan or Marshall. The rebels were repulsed and surrounded by a pursuing force of Warner's regiment and gathered citizens in their rear. There were two killed and seven wounded of the rebels, and 45 prisoners; and in our little town we were out all night and have captured seven more of them at this time, and a dozen more. The fight at Mt. Sterling scattered them everywhere, and our people are still in alarm. We will give them a hand of time.

Yours, T.

Correspondence Louisville Democrat.

WICHITA, July 30, 1862.

Editors—Democrat—Gentlemen: There was a small little brush at Mt. Sterling, on yesterday, between the citizens and some 150 rebels, gathered from Boone and the counties along the way, seeking to join Morgan or Marshall. The rebels were repulsed and surrounded by a pursuing force of Warner's regiment and gathered citizens in their rear. There were two killed and seven wounded of the rebels, and 45 prisoners; and in our little town we were out all night and have captured seven more of them at this time, and a dozen more. The fight at Mt. Sterling scattered them everywhere, and our people are still in alarm. We will give them a hand of time.

Yours, T.

Correspondence Louisville Democrat.

WICHITA, July 30, 1862.

Editors—Democrat—Gentlemen: There was a small little brush at Mt. Sterling, on yesterday, between the citizens and some 150 rebels, gathered from Boone and the counties along the way, seeking to join Morgan or Marshall. The rebels were repulsed and surrounded by a pursuing force of Warner's regiment and gathered citizens in their rear. There were two killed and seven wounded of the rebels, and 45 prisoners; and in our little town we were out all night and have captured seven more of them at this time, and a dozen more. The fight at Mt. Sterling scattered them everywhere, and our people are still in alarm. We will give them a hand of time.

Yours, T.

Correspondence Louisville Democrat.

WICHITA, July 30, 1862.

Editors—Democrat—Gentlemen: There was a small little brush at Mt. Sterling, on yesterday, between the citizens and some 150 rebels, gathered from Boone and the counties along the way, seeking to join Morgan or Marshall. The rebels were repulsed and surrounded by a pursuing force of Warner's regiment and gathered citizens in their rear. There were two killed and seven wounded of the rebels, and 45 prisoners; and in our little town we were out all night and have captured seven more of them at this time, and a dozen more. The fight at Mt. Sterling scattered them everywhere, and our people are still in alarm. We will give them a hand of time.

Yours, T.

Correspondence Louisville Democrat.

WICHITA, July 30, 1862.

Editors—Democrat—Gentlemen: There was a small little brush at Mt. Sterling, on yesterday, between the citizens and some 150 rebels, gathered from Boone and the counties along the way, seeking to join Morgan or Marshall. The rebels were repulsed and surrounded by a pursuing force of Warner's regiment and gathered citizens in their rear. There were two killed and seven wounded of the rebels, and 45 prisoners; and in our little town we were out all night and have captured seven more of them at this time, and a dozen more. The fight at Mt. Sterling scattered them everywhere, and our people are still in alarm. We will give them a hand of time.

Yours, T.

Correspondence Louisville Democrat.

WICHITA, July 30, 1862.

Editors—Democrat—Gentlemen: There was a small little brush at Mt. Sterling, on yesterday, between the citizens and some 150 rebels, gathered from Boone and the counties along the way, seeking to join Morgan or Marshall. The rebels were repulsed and surrounded by a pursuing force of Warner's regiment and gathered citizens in their rear. There were two killed and seven wounded of the rebels, and 45 prisoners; and in our little town we were out all night and have captured seven more of them at this time, and a dozen more. The fight at Mt. Sterling scattered them everywhere, and our people are still in alarm. We will give them a hand of time.

Yours, T.

Correspondence Louisville Democrat.

WICHITA, July 30, 1862.

Editors—Democrat—Gentlemen: There was a small little brush at Mt. Sterling, on yesterday, between the citizens and some 150 rebels, gathered from Boone and the counties along the way, seeking to join Morgan or Marshall. The rebels were repulsed and surrounded by a pursuing force of Warner's regiment and gathered citizens in their rear. There were two killed and seven wounded of the rebels, and 45 prisoners; and in our little town we were out all night and have captured seven more of them at this time, and a dozen more. The fight at Mt. Sterling scattered them everywhere, and our people are still in alarm. We will give them a hand of time.

Yours, T.

Correspondence Louisville Democrat.

WICHITA, July 30, 1862.

Editors—Democrat—Gentlemen: There was a small little brush at Mt. Sterling, on yesterday, between the citizens and some 150 rebels, gathered from Boone and the counties along the way, seeking to join Morgan or Marshall. The rebels were repulsed and surrounded by a pursuing force of Warner's regiment and gathered citizens in their rear. There were two killed and seven wounded of the rebels, and 45 prisoners; and in our little town we were out all night and have captured seven more of them at this time, and a dozen more. The fight at Mt. Sterling scattered them everywhere, and our people are still in alarm. We will give them a hand of time.

Yours, T.

Correspondence Louisville Democrat.

WICHITA, July 30, 1862.

